

Does Peacekeeping Work?

16 September 2019, Beijing, UNA-China

The United Nations Association of China (UNA-China) hosted EPON on 16 September 2019 for a seminar on the effectiveness of peace operations. Approximately 20 Chinese researchers and representatives from the foreign ministry, ministry of defence, and the military and police peacekeeping schools participated in the seminar.

Program of the Workshop on the Effectiveness of Peace Operations (September 16th, International Conference Room in UNA-China)

09:15-09:30 Registration

09:30-09:35 Opening Remarks by Madam ZHANG Dan, Vice-President & Director-General of UNA-China

09:35-10:55 Session I: Introductory Remarks

Moderator: Ambassador WANG Xuexian, member of the UN High Level Independent Panel on Peace Operations (HIPPO)

09:35-09:55 Introduction on the Effectiveness of Peace Operations Network (EPON) by Dr. Kari Osland, Norwegian Institute of International Affairs (NUPI)

09:55-10:15 Introduction on the Findings of the Study on South Sudan by Prof. He Yin, China Peacekeeping Police Training Center

10:15-10:35 Introduction on the Comprehensive Performance Assessment System (CPAS) by Dr. Cedric de Coning, NUPI

10:35-10:55 Introduction on Challenges in Implementing POC Mandate for UNMISS by Prof. He Xing, National University of Defense Technology

10:55-11:10 Coffee Break

11:10-12:30 Session II

Moderator: Ambassador WANG Xuexian, member of the UN High Level Independent Panel on Peace Operations

11:10-12:20 I. Free Discussion

12:20-12:30 II. Closing Remarks Speakers: 1. Dr. Cedric de Coning, NUPI 2. Prof. He Yin, China Peacekeeping Police Training Center

12:30-13:30 Working Lunch